FASHION HINTS
Prepared by Pictorial Review

A suit of checked serge is just what one needs for the week-end trip. Simplicity should be its keynote and this is easily expressed in a plain, all skirt and a straight hip-length coat trimmed with big, plush and a belt and collar of white linen. Five yards 44-inch material and 3/4 yards linen make the first suit.

The striped skirt of the second model is made of mohair, 3 1/2 yards 44-inch wide being required for the purpose. It has a straight front panel and is trimmed with pockets and tucks.

The skirt waist is fashioned from old rose linen, 3 1/2 yards being required.

FLORENCE TO HAVE EXPRESS STATION

After Years of Expectant Waiting the Prison City Will Have Up-town Express Depot

After years of waiting and hoping that some day the town would be graced with an express office right in the heart of affairs, instead of about a mile and a half away, Florence, Arizona, is at last to have its wish granted.

The corporation commission yesterday, upon the recommendation of A. A. Betts, rate expert, decided to allow the Wells-Fargo Express company to move their office from the railroad depot over to the town.

There has been considerable agitation on this line for some time. A few months ago a meeting was held at which several officials of the express company and town officers conferred on the proposed change. It was explained by the expressmen that it would cost considerably more to conduct the company's business with the office uptown, adding as it would expenses for transfer and office rent. This was agreed to by the people of Florence, who petitioned the corporation commission to grant the request for the change.

RAMONA CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL OUTING

Members of the Orangewood Ramona club demonstrated that they could hold an informal picnic as well as present high brow programs on art, literature, music or civics. Yesterday they entertained their families and a few additional guests at a jolly all day affair at Eastlake Park.

They were boys and girls, again with corresponding amusements. Dignity was cast aside as they joined in the fun which did not subside until the tired crowd boarded the cars for home.

George Peabody won the prize in the suit case race, the most comical feature of the program. A. R. Jones took the honors in a shoe race. Mrs. Sue Starr was the winner in a potato race and Mrs. Henry Kohl proved she could drive a nail as well as any man. Miss Fanny Rice came out ahead in the running race for girls and the peanut race, also for girls only was won by Miss Grace Kohl. The special races for boys consisted of running and funny sack races and were won by Donald Starr and Ned Joy.

Promptly at noon a delicious luncheon was served on long tables spread under the trees. It formed a delightful setting for the congenial gathering and the informality prevailed. There were no toasts nor speeches—just a social hour that everyone enjoyed. Mrs. R. W. Seeman vice president of the club was the leading spirit of the occasion and to her much of the credit for the success of the affair was due. Mrs. C. C. Joy, who had charge of the luncheon and Mrs. Ruth Norton chairman of the race committee also contributed largely to the entertainment.
